Key Ideas

- Muslim communities are spread throughout the British Isles, and are represented in all areas of British economic, cultural and political life
- There are over 3.3 million Muslims currently living in the UK (2022 statistics)
- About 15% of Greater Manchester's 2.8 million population is Muslim – which is about 423,300 Muslims.
- Islam is now the second largest religion in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland
- 47% of British Muslims were born in the UK. There are 290,000 Muslims between the ages of 9-14 years old. 53.9% of Muslims are under 19 years of age (2022 statistics)
- There are 1,825 mosques (masjid) in the UK (2022 statistics)
- Around 50 per cent of UK Muslims attend mosque once a week (2022 statistics)
- Most purpose-built UK mosques have a dome and a minaret, have somewhere to wash, a Qibla wall to show the direction of Makkah, and a prayer hall – a space to bow and pray.
- The Five Pillars of Islam are as important to British Muslims as they are to Muslims around the world.
- British Muslims believe that the Holy Qur'an is important to them, and that it makes a difference to how they live their lives.
- In the UK, both boys and girls ages 5-15, attend the Madrasah, which are classes run from 5pm-7pm, every Monday-Friday from September to September, in the local mosque, to learn the Holy Qur'an.
- UK Muslims pray 5 times a day, like Muslims do around the world – at school, at places like the Trafford Centre British Muslims need to have their prayer mat and Qibla Compass to help them to pray facing Makkah correctly.
- The Ramadan fast can be challenging in countries like the United Kingdom, where days can last for up to 16 or 17 hours during the summer months. The most commonly accepted rule is that Muslims must not eat or drink anything during hours of daylight.
