You can help at home by;

- Talking to your child about their school day
- Reading to them
- Looking out for numerals whilst out and about. This term, we will be consolidating numbers 0 - 5 and learning to recognise numbers to 10.

- Playing 'Fred Talk Games' with your child to begin building the foundations of blending and reading. If you go onto the following website:

<https://www.ruthmiskin.com/parentsandcarers/>

You will find a page dedicated to 'Fred Games'. It gives ideas of blending games you could play with your child. For example, I am thinking of an animal, it's a d...o...g. Wait to see if your child can say 'dog'
